

believes shows this feature. The Examiner then combined Zhong and Kadota and states that the claimed feature would have been obvious without providing a reason for combining references or why the feature would have been obvious and ignoring the teachings in the references which argue against such a combination. Such a rejection is clearly hindsight reconstruction based on the claims of the present application. As this is an improper basis for rejecting the claims, it is respectfully requested that each of the rejections based on this combination be withdrawn.
